Tax Basics for Non-Profit Organisations

The Australian Taxation Office (ATO) has recently released a new version of its guide Tax basics for non-profit organisations. The guide provides an overview of tax obligations for not-for-profit organisations, and is a valuable resource for treasurers, officer bearers and employees involved in the administration of a not-for-profit organisation.

The guide will help you determine whether your organisation is 'not-for-profit' and explains a range of taxes and concessions that affect not for profit organisations, including: Income tax, GST, Employees and other workers, Fundraising, Record keeping, administration, and payment, State/territory government taxes and duties.

To download or order the guide, follow the link to the ATO website:

www.ato.gov.au/nonprofit/content.aspx?doc=/content/33609.htm

Please note that RDA Peel does have a hard copy available at the office for your perusal.
